The Excursionists.

The largest excursion left this city

Wednesday morning for Mammoth Cave, that has ever been run from this place. Over forty persons, from the different places named below, joined the excursion, and quite a lively party it was. Below we give their names:

From Hopkinsville and vicinity—

Chas. M. Moscham and wife, Mrs. N.

E. Gray, Mrs. S. M. Brown, Misses

Lizzie B. Brown, Marion Lander, Annie Syper, Sallie Darnall, Mollie Darnall, Mollie Smithson, Ida Pickard, Jonnie Lewis, Green Henry, Bettie

Robertson and Mrs. W. E. Gray; also

Misses Lizzie and Bettie Hart, and Miss Phoebe Brent, who were visiting Mrs. Alexander.

Lafayette—Messrs. M. M. Fuqua,

W. W. Fuqua, R. S. Woodton, Walter

Garner, R. E. Cooper, and Misses N.

Sims.

Monday morning about 10 o'clock on the west side of the Public Square, in Clarksville, Alf Proctor, colored, split the head of his mistress, Susan Hayes, from the crown of her head to her chin. Proctor then pulled a 22 calibre pistol from his pocket and fired 5 shots into his head, but failed to produce death, and he is still living. The woman he struck died instantly. The tragedy was caused from a jealous feeling upon the part of Proctor, as Susan had given some of her attention to a rival of his.

Frank Gaston, colored, was hanged at Salisbury, N. C., for rape.

HERE AND THERE.

There will be a picnic at Sinking Fork on the 17th.

the Baptist Church will give a lawn party on Thursday evening, at Bethel Female College. Admission 25 cts.

Refreshments free.

Rev. J. C. Keith, formerly of this county, but at present Pres. of Pierce College, California, will preach at the Christian Church on Sunday morning, July 11.

Since Dr. R. R. Bourne decided to leave Hopkinsville he has met with such encouraging protests from his patrons that he has re-considered and will remain. He will be found at his old office.

The roof of the Metcalfe Manufacturing Co's shop took fire Tuesday morning and burnt a considerable hole before the fire was discovered.

It caught where the smoke stack came through the roof.

was shot by Dick Allen, week before last at a festival near Newstead, is getting on well and will recover.

Allen has not been caught. A reward of $15 is offered for him.

The greater portion of the wheat will be threshed this week. From every section of the county, heard from, it is reported as turning out well, and the quality good. Buyers are paying 60 cents for a good article

The young ladies belonging to the Band of Harvesters, "chaperoned" by Mrs. Milton Gant, will give an Ice Cream Social and "Musical" in the Court House Hall this eve. Tickets for the supper 15 cents. The public is invited to attend.

Col. Joe Hayscraft, candidate for Congress from Davies county, was in the city Wednesday, and called in to see us. The Col. is a portly gentleman, of a comely nature, and has been feeling the pulse of the Christian county people.

Mr. Jno. M. Victory, of Burlington, was in the city Tuesday. He is the independent candidate in Hopkins county for Circuit Court Clerk, and thinks his chances are good to win.

Mr. Victory is a young man, and fully competent to fill the office should he be elected.

Mrs. Mattie Perkins, aged eighty years, mother of Capt. A. L. Perkins, died at the residence of Mr. James J.

Litchfield, her son-in-law, Wednesday, July 7, at 4 o'clock P. M. She was buried at the Hamby graveyard six miles north of this city, at 2 o'clock yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Witty, who lives a few miles north of the city, had the misfortune to have his barn, together with a large crop of tobacco, a wagon and a lot of farming implements, burned one night last week. The loss is about $1,500. He had an insurance of $800. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Tuesday afternoon Norma Burbridge, a little daughter of Mrs.

Thos. H. Burbridge fell from the rear porch of the Burbridge House, to the brick pavement below, a distance of fifteen feet, breaking both wrists and otherwise injuring her. Dr. L. B.

Hickman was sent for and set the broken bones and she is getting along as well as could be expected.

Solomon have associated themselves under the firm name of Galbreath &

Co., and have purchased the confectionery stock of Messrs. Holland & Rodgers. They will continue the business at the old stand, and would be glad to serve the public to anything in their line. Mr. Galbreath has had many years' experience in this line and is fully competent to enter to the wants of the people in this line. Mr. Solomon is a baker by trade, to which department he will give his personal attention.

Prof. Jas. F. N. McQuillin, will have charge of the Crofton Academy dur-

RED HOT.

THE COUNTY CAMPAIGN AND SPEECHES MONDAY.

A Synopsis of Some of the Speeches.

The candidates for county offices spoke at the Court House Monday afternoon. The Circuit Court room was literally packed with a crowd pretty evenly divided, politically.

The speaking was opened by Cooper and Litchfield for Assessors. They followed Champlin and Kershaw, candidates for Superintendent of Schools. They fired into each other very lively, though in a good-natured way. Judge Champlin referred to his record in the office for the last 12 years; said he understood from long experience what the people wanted and that the people should be careful how they replaced a "steady pulling mule" for a "switch-tailed filly" that they knew nothing about.

Mr. Kershaw stated that he was sick and didn't feel like speaking. He began by criticizing his opponent's record and charged dereliction of duty in not visiting schools as the law requires. He dwelt at length on this and wound up by presenting his claims for the office and said the "switch-tailed filly" would come under the string in August several lengths ahead of the "mule."

Long, the Democratic nominee for Jailer, declined to speak and Glascock, Republican, took the stand and made a very sensible appeal to Republicans to support him.
